On Wednesday, July 4, 2012, in front of 1346 West 97th Street, 14-year old Unique Russell was with friends, family members, and neighbors attending an annual block party celebrating the 4th of July holiday. Unique frequently traveled to the unincorporated West Athens community to visit with family members, who are long time residents of the community. At approximately 10:20 p.m., Unique, along with her cousins, 12-year old Rekeil Reeves and 25-year old Freddy Pickett, were struck by gunfire as they watched fireworks. Witnesses, who initially believed the gunfire to be the sound of fireworks, observed two individuals stand on the southeast corner of 97th Street and Normandie Avenue and fire several shots into a crowd that included Unique and her cousins. Unique was transported to Harbor-UCLA Medical Center where she died from her injuries. The two remaining victims suffered non-life threatening gunshot wounds to their legs and were subsequently released.

After striking the victims, the suspects fled the location on foot and traveled south on Normandie Avenue. The suspects are described as two black males, approximately 18 to 25 years of age. At the time of the shooting, one suspect was wearing a black-hooded sweatshirt
